More stories at WordBlanks.com

Believe or Not

1. Noun _____

Believe or Not

Once there was a boy who was an _____Noun_____. He didn't believe in __noun__. He believed in __noun__. One day he met a __adjective__ , __adjective__ girl, while he was at the __place__. The two of them began to talk, and it soon became obvious that the girl was a __noun__. So they started to __verb__ with each other about which of their religion was right. He quoted the __thing__, and she quoted the __thing__. They argued for __number__ hours. He said __noun__ didn't exist, she said __ noun__ did exist. He said the __noun__ was created by pure phenomenon, she said it was created by __same noun__. The next time they met, they immediately started __verb ending in -ing__ again. This time they __verb__ for __number hours__. __Adverb__ they had enough, and they decided to fight each other. He pulled out a __weapon__ she pulled out a __weapon__. They began to fight, as they __verb__ at each other. They fought for __number__ days, until they both __verb__ over and almost died. The boy saw his life __noun__ before his eyes, and that's when he realized __noun__ did exist. After that he became a __noun__. And he and the girl got married, and had __number__, __adjective__ kids. And they lived _adverb ending in ly__ ever after ©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.