A Letter From The Tooth Fairy To The Cookie Monster

Dear my _____Adjective_____, blue friend,

You may not know who I am, but I am the lady who has to deal with the _____Noun - Plural_____ you make. I place money _____Preposition_____ pillows. I am a good role model because I set a good example for kids. Unlike you, I fix _____Possessive Noun_____ teeth, _____Conjunction_____ I care about children's health. I am a responsible adult. So I would _____Adverb_____ suggest you stop your silly show... what was it called? _____Interjection_____! Sesame Street. You are _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ like an immature, stupid, and irresponsible baboon. You encourage kids to be like slobs. I mean honestly, I went to _____Proper Noun - Place_____ yesterday and guess why the kid lost his tooth? Just guess. That's right. Because _____Pronoun_____ foolishly ate too many cookies. It was a permanent tooth, too. Now the poor _____Noun_____ will have to pay a fortune to replace the tooth. For any questions, come visit me or send me a letter back to my big glass castle.

Stop with the cookies,

The Tooth Fairy
