Zombie Apocalypse Part 1

I grew up in _____ Location on a farm, but I somehow ended up in _____ Location in the city.

When I was born my _____ Noun - Plural were starting to drift apart, and somehow they managed to stay _____ Adjective until I was _____ Number, my _____ Noun disappearing from my life forever as soon as they _____ Verb - Past Tense.

My mom met _____ First Name of a Person, a _____ Adjective yet controlling _____ Noun who never made _____ Noun - Plural effort to _____ Verb - Base Form _____ Adjective or get to know me. He just made _____ Noun - Plural _____ Noun - Plural referred to me as the _____ Adjective _____ Noun of my _____ Noun to all of his creep-ass _____ Noun - Plural.

_____ First Name of a Person had two _____ Noun - Plural, _____ First Name of a Person and _____ First Name of a Person, whom I don't like in the slightest. They're too full of themselves and _____ Adjective, and in my opinion _____ First Name of a Person _____ Verb - Present ends in S way too much.

_____ First Name of a Person always gave off a _____ Adjective _____ Noun and _____ First Name of a Person always _____ Verb - Past Tense me everytime I mentioned that _____ Noun to her.

_____ First Name of a Person used to be my best _____ Noun, she _____ Verb - Past Tense to me and _____ Verb - Past Tense me and when _____ First Name of a Person and his _____ Adjective daughters came into our lives I was thrown out of the _____ Noun.

_____ First Name of a Person and _____ First Name of a Person got _____ Verb - Past Tense when I was _____ Number, and then we left our _____ Adjective farm' as _____ First Name of a Person called it to my annoyance and moved to _____ Location Ohio.

Dont get me wrong, I like _____, but it's not home to me.

I had _____ friends _____ and _____ there in _____ as well. God, how I miss them. _____ and _____ were outcasts like me, and they _____ me in and made me feel _____ about myself.

When we moved to Ohio I was back to having no friends again. I thought something was wrong with me.

Rick made me practically live in the basement and I was okay with that, but I knew he wasn't doing it for me, it was for him. He hated me.

Things started looking up when I entered my senior year of high school. This guy named Jeremy asked me out despite how weird or strange I was, and I felt good again.

I snuck out almost every night to go see him.

Of course, things came crashing down as they started building back up again.

I had gotten pregnant.

It all happened so fast. Jeremy left me, I was left devastated and I had absolutely no support system from anybody anymore.

Because of my depression I had gotten a miscarriage after one month of pregnancy, and my mother and Rick never found out. Neither did Chelsea or Amy.

It was exactly one month ago when Rick tried molesting me, one month ago when I left my home forever and one month since the whole world changed forever.

I

may not ever see my family again, but that isn't my concern. Neither is seeing Jeremy again. I'm alone. I have nobody, and the only people I still care about could be dead. And I haven't seen Lenny and Travis in one year.

And that brings us to now.
