Modern Fantasy

Modeling good teaching, your group will provide fellow students with an overall introduction of your selected genre of children's literature in an interactive presentation, highlighting significant authors and great books from that genre. Beginning with your Tunnell & Jacobs text, information in the presentation may include: definition and understanding of the genre, well-known author information from the genre, titles, quotes or excerpts from books, website information, a sampling of texts from the genre, and an annotated bibliography. Include some type of visual display and a handout (1 page) for your _____Adjective - Ends in EST_____.
