

story

1. Noun
2. Verb - 3Rd Person Singular Present
3. Adverb
4. To
5. Noun - Plural
6. Coordinating Conjunction

story

Each _____ Noun the conductor points or gestures to a particular section, the performers will make emotional noises (try to avoid words -- make sounds that conveys the feelings). When the conductor _____ Verb - 3rd Person _____ Singular Present his hands high, the volume of the performers increase. Hands low, the volume decreases.

Just as a maestro performs during an impassioned symphony, the conductor of the emotion orchestra warms the _____ Adverb up, pointing to them one at a time at first, and _____ to to more sections at once, eventually building to a climactic frenzy.

Performers must make certain that they pay attention to the conductor and become silent as soon as the _____ Noun - Plural points to another group.

Overall, "Emotional Orchestra" is a quick, fun way to warm up the _____ Coordinating conjunction and get the cast primed for more challenging activities.