The visitors

It was a _____ Adjective Winter Morning. Carlos woke up at around 5 am to see the _____ Noun rise. In the beginning the color of the _____ Noun was _____ Adjective because it was rising over a clear _____ Adjective lake. Suddenly a _____ Adjective sound came from behind Carlos. He ran back into his house but did not see anything. Next he heard a voice singing. The voice was singing carlos's favorite song. It went like this.

Good morning carlos

the aliens are here to get you dont try to run

and dont try to hide

come peacefully to our planet carlos walked outside and he was immediately beamed into the spaceship.
