

Casper Spellings, The Animal Kid

1. Animal Noun
2. Animal Noun
4. Animal Noun
5. Animal Noun
6. Clothing Noun
7. Clothing Noun
8. Animal Noun
9. Clothing Noun
10. Animal Noun
11. Clothing Noun
12. Animal Noun
13. Proper Person Noun
14. Proper Person Noun
15. Place Noun
16. Noun
17. Noun
18. Proper Person Noun
20. Proper Person Noun
21. Place Noun
22. Clothing Noun
23. Clothing Noun

Casper Spellings, The Animal Kid

Casper Spellings was a kid unlike any other kid. He had a pet _____ Animal noun that liked to sleep in NOUN PLACE, a _____ Animal noun named PERSON, the tiniest _____ Animal noun you've ever seen, and a big, lazy _____ Animal noun that ate _____ clothing noun NOUN for breakfast.

Yes, Casper Spellings was what we call an animal person. In fact, he was SO much an animal person that he wore CLOTHING _____ clothing noun with _____ Animal noun on them, _____ clothing noun NOUN with _____ Animal noun on them, and _____ clothing noun NOUN with _____ Animal noun on them.

Whenever Casper went walking by, people stopped and stared. PROPER _____ Proper person noun NOUN would say, "There goes the animal boy!" PROPER _____ Proper person noun NOUN would say, "Oh, look, it's Casper the Cat, Koala, Kangaroo, and every other animal lover!

Casper didn't mind. He loved animals and he didn't mind everyone know it. That is, until he got to second grade at PROPER SCHOOL _____ place noun. His classmates there decided that it wasn't cool to love animals so much. So, they made fun of him.

Casper felt sad. He hid beside THING _____ Noun, underneath THING _____ Noun, and even in PLACE NOUN.

But nothing made him feel better. Then, one day, he had an idea.

The next day, there were colorful invitations on everyone's desks, even _____ Proper person noun PERSON and _____ Proper person noun PERSON's desks, the meanest kids in the class. They opened there envelopes carefully.

They had been invited for a special show at _____ place noun PLACE the next day at 4pm! What could it mean?

The next day at 4pm all the kids from the third grade class gathered at the chosen spot. All they could see was a large red and white striped tent. Suddenly, Casper appeared, dressed in all in black, even his _____ clothing noun NOUN and _____ clothing noun NOUN were black!

"Let the circus begin!" Casper yelled! The third graders watched in amazement as Casper led all his pets out from the tent. They watched for two hours as the animals performed different tricks and stunts. The kids were speechless.

After the day at the Casper's circus, no one ever made fun of Casper again for loving animals. In fact, they loved animals now, too.