Pickering v. BOE

One statement in your paper declared that _____ Verb - Present Tense pools, athletic _____ Noun - Plural, and _____ Noun - Plural had been left out of the _____ Noun. They may have been left out but they got put back in _____ Adverb _____ Adverb because Lockport West has both an _____ Noun and athletic _____ Noun.

In fact, Lockport West has a better athletic _____ Noun than Lockport Central. It has a track that isn't quite regulation distance even though the board spent a few thousand _____ Noun - Plural on it. Whose fault is that?

Oh, I forgot, it wasn't supposed to be there in the first place. It must have fallen out of the sky. Such _____ Noun has been _____ Verb - Past Participle on in other letters but it seems one just can't help noticing it. I am not saying the school shouldn't have these _____ Noun - Plural, because I think they should, but promises are promises, or are they?
