Jonah Joins 4-H

Jonah was a _____ Adjective _____ boy who was interested in lots of things! He liked building _____ Noun - Plural _____ out of wood, baking yummy desserts and flying model airplanes. Jonah also really liked his chickens and sheep, which he fed hay to every morning. He knew every one of his animals and gave them names like _____ Name _____, _____ Name _____, _____ Name _____ and _____ Name _____.

But Jonah was lonely doing all these fun things by himself. He wanted friends who he could go exploring with, build and bake with, and who he could show his chickens and sheep to. He told his mom and dad about his problem and they knew exactly what to do: They told him he should join 4-H!

Jonah was really _____ Adjective _____ before his first club meeting with the _____ Adjective _____ _____ Noun _____ 4-H Club. He knew from his dad that in 4-H there was this thing called a pledge, and he would have to remember what all those H's stand for. Head, Heart, Hands... and what was other one... _____ Noun Starting with H _____

But Jonah had nothing to worry about! He met really cool new friends who liked the same things that he did. Some of his new friends had hobbies and interests that he had never heard of! Like Carlos, who was practically an expert at _____ Adjective _____ with his _____ Adjective _____ _____ animal _____.

May, one of his other new friends in his 4-H club, told Jonah all about the exciting things that kids in 4-H get to do.

She told him all about the Fair, Favorite Foods Festival, and other activities.

Jonah is so glad he joined 4-H!
