How I Became A Skeleton

There was a village in _____ _____ where the population was very small. A lot of people had left the village and many of the houses were abandoned. One _____ day, I came to this village looking for _____
_____. I saw what appeared to be an empty _____, but when I went inside, I was surprised to find an _____ woman standing there.

The _____ woman told me to follow her up the stairs. When I reached the top of the stairs and turned around, she had _____. I then walked back down the stairs and saw that the _____ _____ woman was standing in the exact same spot she had been when I entered, except now she was holding a _____ in her hand.

I was very spooked by this and ran to the front door, but when I tried to pull it open, I found that it was locked. I turned to find the _____ woman standing right beside me. She grabbed a hold of my _____.

In the darkness, I hadn't noticed how _____ she looked. But now that she was up close, I could see that her skin seemed to be rotting. She looked dead/

She _____ my _____ and hissed, "Listen to me!" Under this house lie 13 bodies! Leave now or I will kill you!"

After she uttered these words, I began to feel a feeling and collapsed to the floor.

When I woke up, I had no idea how much time had elapsed. Perhaps I had dreamed the whole thing? I was about to leave when I noticed a a thing in the middle of the room where the old woman had been standing.

There was a dark a color stain on it.

I pulled back the the previous thing and found it was covering a large hole in the floorboards. Looking into the hole, I saw human bones neatly arranged underneath.

The bones of 12 bodies were lying there.

"Why did she say 13", I thought?

Then I looked down at myself and realized I was only bones as well.

I was the 13th skeleton.
