Privet

Nothing like this Noun had ever been seen on Privet Drive. He was Adjective, Adjective, and very Adjective, judging by the Adjective of his Noun and Noun, which were both long enough to tuck into his Noun. He was wearing long Noun - Plural, a purple Noun that swept the ground, and high-heeled, buckled Noun - Plural. His blue Noun - Plural were Adjective, bright, and sparkling behind half-moon spectacles and his Noun was very long and Adjective, as though it had been broken at least twice. This man's name was Proper Noun Dumbledore.
