High Fantasy Story

There once was a land named           Noun          . The land had lots of           Noun          ,           Noun          , and           Noun          . In place there were many different creatures. Some of the creatures were half           Noun           and half           Noun          , while the other creatures were half           Noun           and half           Noun          . The land was known for its amazing           Noun           where people would come from all different parts of the world to get. But there was something stopping the people from entering           Noun          . An evil           Noun           ruled the land and would stop all the           Adjective           creatures from getting the           Noun          . But luckily for all the creatures, there was a(n)           Adjective           man that was trying to stop the evil           Noun           from taking over the land. The man talked to all the creatures including the           Noun           and the           Noun           to help him defeat the evil           Noun          . The man and all of his           Adjective           soldiers went to the castle where the evil           Noun           lived and killed it. The man was made king of           Noun           and all the creatures were able to come and go as they pleased getting as much           Noun           as they wanted.
