How much I love my Grandma

My Grandma's name is First Name of a Person. She is the best Noun in the whole world, except for my relative. I even like her more than myself and my Noun.

Every time I Verb - Base Form her, she says, "Why don't you come over today?" And I live in the same Location as her. So I walk to her house and she is always Verb - Present ends in ING outside on the porch with a tray of food and food chip cookies or brownies. So I go over to her, Verb - Base Form her, and then take a food and some lemonade. We both sit on the bench swing for a while, Verb - Present ends in ING. Then we go inside. Her house smells like freshly-baked plural food, food, cinnamon, plural food, and peppermint. She lets me eat the rest of my cookie on the Noun and she lets me watch TV. I usually watch Sponge Bob. Grandma doesn't like Noun Bob, but she still watches it with me. Once in a while I let her pick the movie, and she always chooses TV show. I like it, but not as much as same noun as last one Bob.

Then we look at her Adjective Noun albums. She has Number photo albums, and we look at one every time I go there. We've looked at Number of them so far. They are pictures of her and relative before he Verb - Past Tense and their puppy, First Name of a Person.

Then we go outside to the backyard and she watches me as I go in the old tree Type of building. In the tree same type of building is a bunch of stuff. Papers to draw on, Noun - Plural, pencils, Adjective books, a laptop, and a year's supply of Noun - Plural. The snacks are cookies, food, chips, trail mix, and Noun cakes.

Then

we go in the _____ Noun and drink sweet ice _____ liquid and freshly-cut _____ Noun - Plural, like pineapple, oranges, strawberries, and watermelon. Then we talk about our day and what we've been doing lately.
When I get tired, I either go home or take a nap in her _____ room. The sunroom has _____ color curtains and floral _____ Noun - Plural and white shag carpet. There's also lots of flowers, and pictures on the _____ Noun - Plural. After that it's usually late, so I go home. I LOVE my Grandma!
