How much I love my Grandma

My Grandma's name is She is the best in the whole world, except for my I even like her more than myself and my Every time I her, she says, "Why don't you come over today?" And I live in the same as her. So I walk to her house and she is always verb - Present ends in ING outside on the porch with a tray of and chip cookies or brownies. So I go over to her, her, and then take a and some lemonade. We both sit on the bench swing for a while, Then we go inside. Her house smells like freshly-baked food , cinnamon,, and peppermint. She lets me eat the rest of my cookie on the and she lets me watch TV. I usually watch Sponge Bob. Grandma doesn't like Noun Bob, but she still watches it with me. Once in a while I let her pick the movie, and she always chooses I like it, but not as much as same noun as last one Bob.
Then we look at herAdjective albums. She has photo albums, and we look at one every time I go there. We've looked at of them so far. They are pictures of her and relative before he Verb - Past Tense and their puppy, First Name of a Person.
