The Happiest Nappiest Great Christmas Morning

Today is Adjective morning. I could not Verb - Base Form! I ran out of the bedroom just to be Verb - Past Tense by my parents. They said to wait in my room until they were finished Verb - Present ends in ING presents. I sat on my bed, thinking about what kinds of gifts I could get. After about number minutes, my mom came into my room and said, "Come out now! We're finished wrapping Noun - Plural!" So I ran out my room and stopped in the Verb - Present ends in ING room. The beautiful Christmas Noun stood there, glowing more than ever. There were red, blue, color and color lights and ornaments and even the old ornament that has been passed down the family for number years. It's an ornament that's supposed to look like a Noun. It says "Adjective random word" on it.

The Noun was to the right, crackling and burning Adverb. I could hear Adjective music in the background. It sang, "Plural food roasting at an open fire....Jack Noun nipping at your part of body...." I smiled. Then on the mantel I saw three little gingerbread Noun - Plural - one for each of us. Then I looked down. Presents! There were piles of presents. I saw one shaped like a Noun and I wondered what it was.

My parents said to me, "Merry Christmas, Sarah." I said, "Adjective Christmas." Then we all sat down and they told me to pick out a present. Before I did, I ran into my room and grabbed number wrapped gifts - one for each of my parents. I told them to open them first. My dad's present was a brand new Christmas Noun. I Verb - Past Tense it myself. It was color and green and had pictures of Noun - Plural.

on it. My dad said, "Thanks, Sarah!" My mom's present was a Christmas _____ book. It had lots of recipes in it, like _____ food _____ cookies, sugar _____ Plural food _____, pumpkin rolls with whip _____ liquid _____ and more. On the cover was a picture of a _____ Noun _____. She said, "Gee, thanks!" Then I opened my first gift. I picked the _____ Adjective - Ends in EST _____ one with blue and red wrapping paper. I tore it open and opened the box. Inside was a _____ Noun _____. It even came with little dolls, and mini clothes and purple _____ Noun - Plural _____. I was _____ emotion _____. Then I opened my next gift. It was a backpack with _____ cartoon character _____ on it! I was glad to replace my old backpack - that one had _____ cartoon character _____ on it. I hate _____ same cartoon character _____. Then I opened many others. I got a _____ Noun _____, a _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ kit, and much more. I _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ my parents. The end.
