The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe

Nobody believed Lucy about Proper Noun. Edmund actually saw Narnia but lied and pretended he hadn't.

One day, a group of tourists came to the Professor's Adjective, Adjective house and Peter, Susan, Edmund and Lucy were told to Verb - Base Form. They ended up hiding in the wardrobe, and lone behold, all of them were suddenly in Adjective Narnia! Now they knew Lucy wasn't Verb - Present ends in ING and Edmund was. They Verb - Past Tense to visit Tumnus only to learn the Proper Noun had captured him. Before they could leave Narnia, Edmund left to Verb - Base Form the witch and their only option was going to find Aslan to get him back safely. Peter, Susan, and Lucy had to depend on the Beavers to get them safely to the Adjective Table where Aslan was Verb - Present ends in ING for them.
