Final Exams

The _____ before winter break are always _____ at Wittenberg University.

_____ start to pile on more work to get everything done in time. In particular, there are a lot of _____ and _____. Besides all the extra assignments, _____ are also right around the corner.

During _____, campus changes drastically. There isn't class anymore except during your scheduled exam blocks. Instead of going to class, people _____ away in corners of the library or in their rooms. _____ consumption increases dramatically. It is common not to see one's friends for a couple days. To give students more _____ time, Wittenberg schedules a Reading Day, a day where classes are canceled. However, this doesn't have much affect during the _____ because Reading Day always falls during the weekend, so classes would have been canceled otherwise.

As the week of _____ progresses, campus gets emptier. This is because when people finish _____ their _____, they leave for break. The thoughts of break help drive students through _____ Proper Noun - Plural. Whether it's thoughts of home, a warm beach, or some other exciting adventure, students know that once the horrors of _____ are over, they have something waiting for them. Finally, all that are left are the few _____ souls that have exams on the last day of finals, a few people waiting for _____ or _____, and RAs who need to close the buildings.

Suddenly, it's all over. Everyone has _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ and the buildings are _____ Verb - Past Participle _____.

Campus is silent. The last few people leave are excited for the next few weeks and dreading the start of the 2nd semester. But, don't worry. Break gets _____ Adjective _____. By the time the first week is over, most people are ready to _____ Verb _____. The spring semester always starts with _____ Noun _____ to see _____ Noun _____ and get busy with _____ Noun _____.
