Merry Christmas from the Tutt Family!

It has been quite a _____ Adjective year for our family! We kicked off the year breaking ground on our new _____ Noun. It was a new and exciting experience for us and we are very _____ Adjective with the results!

Wes continued to enjoy his work at the Pensacola Naval Air Station _____ Verb - Present ends in ING T-1 jets. Linda enjoyed her time working with the United Way Tax assistance program and deciding on _____ Noun details for the new house. This year was full of _____ Noun for Katie and Jacob! Katie graduated from high school in June and is thoroughly _____ Verb - Present ends in ING her time at the University of Central Florida, majoring in Biomedical Sciences. Jacob began high school this fall and had his _____ Part of Body full juggling Swim team, Marching band, and Science Olympiad; but he couldn't be enjoying high school more. Simon is loving life in the new house: chasing birds and facing his fear of _____ Noun. We are grateful for such a wonderfully _____ Adjective year and hope that this letter finds your family well! Merry Christmas and best wishes for the New Year!

Love,

The Tutt Family
