xmas 2013

Who had the Adjective - Superlative Adjective year? Let's meet our Noun - Plural. Our first contestant, First Name of a Person, is Number this year. He is still teaching high school and Verb - Present ends in ING indoor Noun. His interests are Noun and humor and he paints houses during the summer to make ends meet.

Our second contestant, First Name of a Person, is in her last month of her Number decade. She is currently winning the most creative award for the family with her Paleo Verb - Present ends in ING and bohemian, leather Noun.

Our third contestant, First Name of a Person, is turning into quite the debonaire, Number grade gentleman. He pursued Verb - Present ends in ING this year. Hope you don't find a lot of holes in this Noun! He'll be playing Noun in January.

First Name of a Person, our final contestant, is most likely to get cauliflower Part of Body. He just finished Verb - Present ends in ING season and he's currently in a growth spurt.

Each contestant traveled to northern Location this summer to visit Erin's Noun - Plural. The family picked Noun - Plural, walked around downtown Location and the self-proclaimed "Center of the Universe" marker. The boys took a day to do some downhill biking at Location Location Location before the entire family drove to Location to meet their Adjective friends the Jenks.
