Alexander Family Christmas Gift

The Alexander Family Christmas gift is           Noun          . It's           Adjective          . It's completely           Adjective          .

This year will be no exception.

Since Rosie has been so good. Since Connor has been so           Adjective          . Since Kyle has been so           Adjective          . Since Owen has been so           Adjective          . It's clear that we need to do something special.

Should we go to the zoo? We could see the           Noun - Plural                     Verb           and           Verb          .

Should we go to the museum? We could see paintings of           Noun - Plural           and           Noun - Plural          ?

Should we go to a fancy restaurant? We could eat           Noun - Plural           and           Noun          .

Those aren't good enough. Let's go tobogganing.

When we did it last year, it was so fancy. And Uncle Kevin felt so           Adjective           afterward.

Merry Christmas guys!
