Ski Weekend

It was a Adjective winter weekend, and the Lena family decided to take a Noun trip. They packed up their ski gear, and headed to the Noun - Plural of Maine. They were joined in their adventure by Patti and Mesfin McManamy from Proper Noun and Sean and Maya from Proper Noun, Proper Noun. They stayed in a Noun Noun house in Rangely, only five minutes from Proper Noun Mountain. During the day, they spent their time Noun, Adverb and cross country and at night, they cooked Noun and played Noun games. For Mesfin, this was his first time skiing. He took a Noun and was a fast learner! The ski instructor told everyone that Mesfin was a natural skier, but he needed to work on learning how to Verb! Everyone was having a lot of fun. One day as they were skiing, Kathy decided that she wanted a Adjective ski Noun. She saw the run, Tight Line, from the Noun, and thought to herself, "Pronoun Modal Verb Determiner!" So, along with Mark, Sean, and Maya they made the traverse to the run. It was only when she got to the top that she realized that she had made a big Noun. It was a lot Noun than it looked from the lift. Nonetheless, she tried to side slip down, and get to the bottom Adverb. Halfway down the headwall, she slipped and fell. She knew immediately that something was wrong. She felt her knee pop and then her knee kept buckling under her weight. Although she was Verb - Past Participle, she Adverb held on until Sean and Maya got the Noun Noun. She took a ride down the mountain in a sled, and the doctors later told her that she had torn Noun - Plural in her knee. It was a scary experience, but after Noun, she made a full recovery and was able to Verb the next year!
