The Land Before Time Intro

Once upon this same Noun, beneath the same Noun.

Long before you, before the ape and the elephant as well, the wolf, the bison, the Animal. Before the mammoth and the mastodon, in the time of the dinosaurs.

Now the dinosaurs were of two kinds. Some had Adjective teeth and ate the Noun - Plural of trees and some had Adjective teeth for eating Noun, and they Verb - Past Tense upon the leaf eaters.

Then it happened that the leaves began to Verb - Base Form. The Adjective beasts who appeared to rule the Location were ruled in truth by the leaf.

Desperate for Noun, some of the dinosaur herds stuck out towards the west. Searching for the Great Noun, a land still Adjective and green. It was a journey towards life.

It was a march of many Noun - Plural, sharpteeth stalked the herds, waiting to cease any who Verb - Past Tense. The leaf eaters stopped only to Verb - Base Form their young.

Some of the young seemed born without Noun.

Yet... even Verb - Present ends in ING could be dangerous.

One herd had only a single Noun, their last hope for the future. And they called him... First
