Tyrone's Woolen Gift

There once was a boy named Tyrone. He was a Adjective man. One day he was Verb - Present Tense home from his job at Planned Parenthood when he heard a noise from the Noun - Plural. It was a strange female Noun. She glared at him with Part of Body on fire. Her Part of Body burned with a deep and Adjective desire. She said, "Let me place this woolen Part of Body cover on you. I made it for a Adjective just your size." Tyrone Verb - Past Tense, for he had always wanted one of those. He let her put it on and once it was there he Verb - Past Tense with Adjective. "exclamation! That feels so Adjective." The girl smiled. "I knew you would feel that way, Tyrone."

Tyrone took his new gift home and showed his Noun. "LOOK! LOOK! Isn't it Adjective?"

She was disgusted so she Verb - Past Tense him. You see, she was psychic, and she knew that Tyrone now had AIDS.

RIP, Tyrone.
