Breaking Records

As you may know, the Class of 2020 has broken many records, and is still breaking some today. We hold the longest _____ Verb - Present ends in ING session, held by _____ Verb - Present ends in ING, a former classmate. We also hold the most hyper people in the world, caused by a comusumed amount of _____ food. Of course, being volleyball champions, we hold the record of _____ Verb - Present ends in ING the loudest, and have _____ Adjective sportmaship. We are also one of the _____ Adjective classes academically, and have set the record with a _____ Grade ex: A+ B- D F. We hold the record of being the only 6th grade class in 2014 to do the Tabasco challenge, holding a _____ cooking or eating untesil of Tabasco in your mouth for _____ number seconds, without vomiting or crying.... too much. We also break the record of _____ Verb - Present ends in ING for jelly beans and marshmallows from Mr. Tam. Another amazing record break is when we won _____ Noun week with the most _____ Adjective. But last but not least, we hold the record of people we've scared away in less than half a year. I guess we were really too _____ Adjective.... Hey! That's another record!
