The proposal

groom & bride went with our friends to Location to go outdoor Verb - Present ends in ING. The day started like any other day Verb - Present ends in ING, met our friends at Panera in Location ridge, Noun Verb - Past Tense to The Obed, Verb - Past Tense to the Noun and did some Verb - Present ends in S. We were having a rough day Verb - Present ends in ING for some reason that day. The Noun was Adjective and we were not feeling Adjective. So, groom gave bride a belay on a Verb - Base Form. She almost gave up at the start, but groom wouldn't let her. So after Verb - Present ends in ING to the top groom lowered bride down to the ground in front of him. bride was in a Adjective mood about the Noun until she saw groom down on one knee Adjective and Adjective presenting a little Noun with a beautiful Adjective ring. bride was so Adjective and Adjective she put the ring on her own Adjective finger and said "of course" instead of "Yes." We left The Verb - Past Tense early that day, Verb - Past Tense up, and had a Adjective dinner at Gosh, our favorite Proper Noun restaurant in Location.
