More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Little Mermaid

1. Adjective _____

The Little Mermaid

Once upon a time, in a faraway land under the sea lived a teenage mermaid. Her name was Ariel. With her fiery red hair and her _____Adjective_____ maroon lips, she was gorgeous. But her whole life she dreamed of having legs. She wanted to learn to walk, run and anything else she could do with the long legs. She wanted them so she could meet her true love. He lived up above, and he had legs. One day she visited the great sea witch who gave her a terrible potion to give her legs, but she had to give the sea witch her glorious voice. Also if the prince didn't love her after three days Ariel became one of her pets. Along with the help of her friends the prince soon fell in love with Ariel and they got married with the blessing from her father. And they lived happily ever after.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.