Zebra

The fabled Proper Noun Zinkhon, or as more commonly known, Zebra is said to have been a long time member of our team. Legend has it that Zebra had originally come to us from the front end and allegedly been with Assurant for three years.

During her time with our team it is rumored that Zebra held the line at the battle of Man H. During this legendary engagement many claims were closed and roof repair was funded in many homes. It was not all good times however. On at least one occasion her direct line was compromised and she fell victim to the feared angry home owner, however even this claim was closed under her prowess.

The taming of The Help Desk was a massive undertaking lend by The Fabled Zebra. It may have taken many days and a massive loss of skittles, but under her leadership The Help Desk has become a point of pride for the team and a vialable option for others.

During her reign as the longest haired Jessica in the immediate vicinity she preformed many great feats and quests. Not the least amongst these is the resurrection of Newsletter, Annexation of New Chair, and the acquisition of The Functional Adding Machine.

Today we enjoy a full color Newseletter with many backgrounds and interesting contributions due to her fabled resurrection.

As it turns out Persephone had it so Zebra got it back by giving her some pomegranate seeds, or so the legend goes.

The Function Adding Machine, a fabled and magical device long thought to not exist has been acquired by The Zebra. This is one thing she did not do alone. Inspired by her many pink sticky notes and shiny scissors a legionnaire retrieved it from the mythical land of empty desk in the land of Build B, past the breezeway and past the copier.

The Annexation of New Chair was a true tale of cunning and confidence. With no use of force or confrontation she went deep behind the lines of building C and returned with direct control over New Chair. It was a legendary victory that can never be equaled or deflated.

The legend goes that Zebra is now happily turning out the days watching over us all from the mythical land of Qa-halla. Looking over our daily work and guiding us. It is rumored that if you truly believe she can be contacted on the Sametime.
