Carol's Goodbye

There is a Adjective school named Vista Del Mar. This school uses Adjective people to help teach Adjective kids. One Noun that makes this school very Adjective is there are Adjective teachers. One teacher that makes this place Adjective is a friend named Proper Noun. Proper Noun has worked here for Adjective years helping kids with their speech. The great Noun about Pronoun is that she does it for free. She helps kids Verb their speech by providing Adjective Noun - Plural for the kids. For most people, speech is a very Adjective task to work on, but Proper Noun always makes it Noun! Today will be Proper Noun last day here at our school. Moving forward, Carol will be doing very fun things while we are at school with our new speech therapist. Students will be in class and Carol will be Verb - Present ends in ING her retirement. Carol is going to get to do all the fun things that she never was able to do before. We will Verb - Base Form Carol and all of her Adjective!
