Mystery Story

1. Adjective _____

2. Verb - Past Tense _____

3. Adverb _____

4. Noun - Plural _____

5. Noun - Plural _____

6. Adjective _____

7. Verb - Past Participle _____

8. Preposition Or Subordinating Conjunction _____

9. Verb - Present Tense _____

10. Verb - Present Tense _____

11. Verb - Past Tense _____

12. Noun _____

13. Noun _____

14. Noun _____

Mystery Story

It was a _____Adjective_____ and stormy night. Everyone in the manor of the baron's large estate _____Verb - Past Tense_____ huddled _____Adverb_____ by the fires, tended by the stalwart _____Noun - Plural_____. Despite the dreary weather, the _____Noun - Plural_____ tried to keep warm and _____Adjective_____ by drinking mulled cider. One lone groundskeeper - clasping his thick cloak around him and trying to keep off the rain - _____Verb - Past Participle_____ _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____.

He tripped over something. _____Verb - Present Tense_____ out his _____Verb - Present Tense_____ lantern, he tried to make out what it was. He gasped. It _____Verb - Past Tense_____ a body!

He tried to identify it, but the darkness and the rain make it difficult. He began to hurry inside.

Once inside, he shook off his wet cloak and looked around for the baron. He asked the maids, the butlers, the baron's _____Noun_____, daughter, and even brother-in-law. None knew where he was.

"By God!" exclaimed the groundskeeper as he realized _____Noun_____ no one had seen the baron for some time. He quickly threw his cloak back on, and then went back out to find the body. Examining it closer, his _____Noun_____ was confirmed...

Someone

had killed the baron!