

The Greatest Story Ever Told

1. Adjective
2. Noun
3. Noun
4. Noun - Plural
5. Noun - Plural
6. Noun - Plural
7. Noun - Plural
8. Verb - Base Form
9. Verb - Present Ends In S
10. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
11. Noun
12. Noun - Plural
13. Noun - Plural
14. Country
15. Noun - Plural
16. Verb - Base Form

The Greatest Story Ever Told

This is the _____ Adjective story ever told. It is about the _____ Noun with a capital A; the _____ Noun of life and all that we see, even what we don't see.

God created the world and everything in it out of love, love for us! The _____ Noun - Plural, the _____ Noun - Plural, the _____ Noun - Plural, the rivers, and the oceans, God created it all. We too were created, formed in God's image, so we were formed out of love to _____ Verb - Base Form others. God _____ Verb - Present ends in S us so much that even when we sinned and turned away from God, God made a covenant with us, a promise. God said to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that I will make a great nation out of you, and bless you so you can be a _____ Verb - Present ends in ING to others.

God kept his part of the bargain, but we dropped the _____ Noun, and then we dropped it again, and again.

And so God gave us judges, people who would straighten us out, lead us back to worshipping and loving God.

Some of these judges were intense like Samson who could tear _____ Noun - Plural in half and tie foxes

_____ Noun - Plural together! The judges lasted for a while until the people wanted something a little more permanent, and to be like the other nations, like the _____ Country (well, way before the Brits, but the Brits rock monarchy fairly well). So the Israelites got a King, and another and another. These kings are kind of like us, they mean well, but they make mistakes. And after a few too many mistakes, the kingdom finally broke up and half of the people got carried away to Babylon (that is modern day Iraq)

Then after the kings were the _____ Noun - Plural, they spoke about God in their current situation of life as refugees in a foreign land. Prophets looked at life, and said how it was supposed to be according to God's love.

Some

of the prophets even told of a day when God would come to be and Verb - Base Form among us. How great of a story would that be!?