Mom's birthday

It's Raymy's surprise birthday party. The Adjective girl is turning Number. All her closest Noun and Noun are here. We are going to be Verb - Present ends in ING all her favorite Noun and eating Noun - Plural made especially for her. I made a food and food birthday cake using a Noun that I learned from First Name of a Person. She received many Adjective presents including a Noun from her Noun and a Noun filled with Noun from her Noun.

Raymy enjoys spending her Event days with Noun and Noun and as a crafter enjoys Verb - Present ends in ING hand-made gifts. The part that she likes best about get togethers is the Verb - Present ends in ING up during brief conversations and the Event games that she gets to Verb - Base Form. Winning Noun is always a good part of a Event.

Raymy loves when family Verb - Present ends in S together to celebrate Adjective occasions and we are very thankful that Noun was able to be here with us today.

First Name of a Person said the best thing about Raymy is "she's crafty! She can take a Noun and turn it into Adjective Noun!"

First Name of a Person says the thing she likes best about Raymy is " her Adjective heart."

According to First Name of a Person, her most endearing quality is " Part of Body "

In closing, I would simply like to thank everyone for Verb - Present ends in ING us today and for

Verb - Present ends in ING a little Noun and Noun to make this occasion Adjective special for Raymy.

Happy Birthday Mom!
