Family Dinner

Sherrie Flick

I'm the food soup. Verb - Past Tense up and Verb - Past Tense, Verb - Present ends in ING Adjective here on the sofa. The Noun itself Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present for real on the Noun. But I'm Adjective, so its Noun seems like a Noun Noun. The Noun Noun - Plural. Me, on the Noun.

You need to Pronoun, I tell myself. I can Verb my Noun Noun Verb - Present Tense as the Noun - Plural Verb, Verb - Present Tense over there in the Noun, their Adjective Noun - Plural Verb - Past Tense this morning before the plunge. The Adjective Noun poses on its Adjective stand, apart from us, Adjective, like the Noun atop the Noun Verb - Past Tense into a Adjective Noun ball, Verb - Present Tense like the world is Adjective. The Noun is the Noun. The Noun is in the Noun stand. The dog Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present as if to confirm the unreliability of me as a Noun. He makes a Adjective circle and re-positions himself into the same spot: Verb - Present Tense.

The rolls are tiny Adjective, many Adverb, too many probably, on the cooling rack.

Adjective like my Noun - Plural maybe were once, but that was a long time ago, and it isn't time for nostalgia right this second as I Verb - Past Tense on the couch and the fire Noun - Plural in the wood-burning stove. The fire is the concept of this story, the backdrop. It will be the Adjective until I have to get up and Adverb poke it to keep it Verb - Past Participle.

I've never liked Noun. Or my Noun Katie, who Verb - Past Tense this morning to quietly and without much remorse Verb our Proper Noun plans.

"Isn't Pronoun," she said.

"What isn't Pronoun," I said. "The Noun? Your Noun?"

"I never said I was bringing a Proper Noun," Katie said.

"It's just a figure of speech," I said. "Proper Noun not working."

Katie

_____ Verb - Base Form _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction, like she was _____ Noun a _____ Coordinating conjunction _____, and maybe she was. What do I know? "The entire idea of the _____ Noun isn't working, Martha,
" she said. "Dad is _____ Verb - Past Participle, you know. I just want to start my own _____ Noun - Plural."

"Like today?" I said. "Because it's a _____ Adjective _____ Adjective, don't you think, Kate? I mean I've _____ Verb - Past Tense some _____ Adjective _____ Noun here, and mom is _____ Verb - Present Tense to _____ Verb over, and she's been _____ Adjective anyway and now, today you're deciding you'd like to diverge from this already strange situation and create your own creepy ritual?"

"Look," Katie said with that nasal twang she gets when she's uppity. "I clearly don't have to _____ Verb this to you. Isn't working. I said that. I'm going to go and _____ Verb some stuff out. Going now. Bye." And with that she hung up.

The soup simmers. The _____ Noun _____ Noun - Plural. The cake _____ Noun - Plural. The chocolate tart is not yet made. The wine on the _____ Noun, the good wine, is _____ Noun. The dinner will be _____ Adjective. Mom and me. A widow and a _____ Adjective single woman with a _____ Adjective _____ Noun. I can't bear to tell my mom that Katie doesn't like her.

_____ Verb - Base Form family. _____ Verb - Base Form love.

So I don't. I won't. I make the _____ to lust I think I might French kiss it. I change clothes, put on something _____ I ever put on for family things--a _____ shirt with earrings. Mom arrives, and she's _____ _____, really _____ hard. I give her a big bear hug, a sloppy _____
_____. The dog _____. She has brought _____ and _____, a dog treat and little homemade nametags that she _____ for each place setting.

I've _____ the table for three, because I am both a _____ and a loser. She props each precious nametag at each place setting. We _____ the wine, and it _____ _____ us for taking so long.

Before I _____, an _____ comes to me. It descends like _____ _____ the _____; that _____. I _____ _____ out some _____ from the living room shelves, take out 2 photographs, do some _____. I _____ a photo of my sister to one chairback, a photo of my dad on the other. We're now an awkward table of four with only one missing nametag, like it should be. I add a place setting.

Mom sits down, a little _____ at first, expecting Katie to walk in carrying some weird vegetarian food in tones of gray or brown. But when she sees the photo, she nods and says, "I always liked that dress on Kate. It brings out the green in her eyes, don't you think?"

Mom and I toast to everyone, including the dog. We wait for the denouement of the story. We breathe deep all the food aromas. Too much food for us, we know. But still. We Verb - Non 3rd Person Singular Present it all
