

WORD BLANK

1. Noun - Plural
2. Noun - Plural
3. Verb - Past Tense
4. Noun - Plural
5. Noun - Plural
6. Noun - Plural
7. Noun - Plural
8. Noun - Plural

WORD BLANK

My valentine goes to my 19 year old son, David. His father and I _____ Noun - Plural been divorced since he was 6. His father stood up to him at 12 years old and told him he never wanted him. I raised him on my own since then and before then due to his lack of effort. My job _____ Noun - Plural me to travel through his entire high school career, with him in tow. Year after year, school after school, he continued to make straight A's. He has kept a job since he _____ Verb - Past Tense 15, starting his own business walking the pets at the hotels we were living at and offering to help file in the company offices when he could. He was homeschooled his last year of high school due _____ Noun - Plural the environment we were in. It didn't matter. He continued to succeed. Today, he is a Sophomore, who had 1 semester of college finished by high school, and makes Honor Roll and has been _____ Noun - Plural to the National Honor Fraternity because of his grades. As a double major, computer science and Math _____ Noun - Plural he has _____ Noun - Plural far beyond all belief. He put the past behind him and carried forward like a man. He sent 116 packages to our troops in 7th grade as a school Christmas project. He _____ Noun - Plural thinks of others first and has been my strength. When I look at this young man, my heart just fills with joy and pride. As a single parent, who could ask for more from a kid.