Sports can be fun. The most popular sports can be football baseball and fence ball. how do you play fence ball.

its actually very easy. So this is how to play. Lets say you play with 14 people. So 7 people will be on each team.

The person whose up stands at base about 4 feet from the pitcher. The pitcher throws kicks or hits the ball to the person whose up. If the person whose up catches the ball his team gets a point. If he doesn't catch the ball his team loses a point. Then he has to run up with the ball to the 2nd base about 2 miles away [which the teams decided before hand]. The other team has to tag him tackele him fence or fight him until they get the ball. if he his able to run to 2nd base with the ball Article team gets 3 points. If the other team gets the ball the person whose up his team loses a point and the other team gets a point. This game is recommended for funny boys and weird girls. Hope you like this game because its fun maybe you will play some time.
