The next morning, Grandma said they would make pancakes. First, they _____ Verb - Past Tense flour, salt, and baking powder into a bowl. Next, Julie _____ Verb - Past Tense eggs in another bowl. Grandma _____ Verb - Past Tense butter in a pot. She _____ Verb - Past Tense the melted butter and milk to the eggs. After that Julie added the dry ingredients. Then she _____ Verb - Past Tense everything together.

The best part came next. Grandma _____ Verb - Past Tense the batter. She did not just make any old pancakes. They were in the shape of letters. She _____ Verb - Past Tense butter in a pan. Then she drew a J with some batter in the hot butter. Next, Grandma _____ Verb - Past Tense a U, then an L, then an I, and then an E.

Grandma made one pancake for each letter in Julie's name.

Grandma put the five pancakes on a plate. They _____ Verb - Past Tense

"J-U-L-I-E." Julie got to eat her own name for breakfast. She ate her name with jam! It was a great breakfast!
