Anatolia

Once upon a time a little           Noun           called           First name                     Verb           to pass. the anatolia entrance exam. He           Verb           and studied until his eyes turned to           Plural noun                     Plural noun           and his head           Verb           into a           Noun          . When the time came to           Verb           the test he was so           Adjective           and he left           Location           with a           Whatever you want          .
