

Countries

1. Noun - Plural
2. Noun
3. Country
4. Noun - Plural
5. Number
6. Country
7. Adverb
8. Adjective
9. Noun
10. Animal (Plural)
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Number
14. Verb
15. Verb
16. Food
17. Food
18. Noun - Plural
19. Holiday
20. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
21. Noun
22. Adjective
23. Country

24. Verb

25. Verb

26. Noun

27. Verb - Present Ends In Ing

28. Food

29. Food

30. Food

31. Food

32. Adjective

33. Noun

34. Verb - Past Tense

35. Country

36. Noun

37. Number

38. Food

39. Noun

40. Adjective

41. Noun

42. Adjective

43. Verb

44. Country

45. Adjective

46. Verb - Past Tense

47. Country

48. Country

49. Noun

50. Verb

51. Number

Countries

Looking at a map- There are ways to determine where countries are located. If you want to see where _____ are, you can look in the middle of the _____ to find Brazil. Above the equator, you can find countries including Canada, America, etc. Below the equator, you can find countries including _____, South Africa, etc. Looking at the points at the map, you find major _____.

Looking at the stars on the map, you find the capital of a country. There are _____ countries in the world. A few countries in North America include Cuba, Bahamas, Mexico, Canada, Puerto Rico, Haiti, Panama, U.S., El Salvador, etc.

France- The capital of _____ is Paris. The population of France is 65.7 million people that live there.

French is spoke _____ around France. French is also the second most _____ language in Europe. France's motto is "Liberte, Egalite, Fraternite" (Liberty, equality, fraternity). Typical French _____ includes breadsticks, crepes, and _____. France also has an independence day... kind of. Their independence day is called _____ in Europe Day. It celebrates the _____ of captives during World War 2.

Germany: The capital of Germany is Berlin. The population of Germany is approximately _____ million people. 99% of Germans can _____ and _____. People in Germany mostly speak

German. The main government types are democrats and republicans. Germans love their _____.

Common German foods include brezelen, sauerkraut, black forest cake, sausages, and of course: _____!

Many Germans enjoy sports and there are many German _____ clubs. Germans also celebrate _____.

During Christmas, Germans are just like Americans- making white dough treats, and _____ Verb - Present ends in _____ _____ ING _____ Christmas carols. The Christmas Carols are different in Germany than in America.

Italy: Italy has a population of 61.3 million people living in it. The _____ Noun _____ of Italy is Rome. Rome is often called the _____ Adjective _____ city. People from _____ country _____ speak Latin, Italian, and French. Italians speak French and Latin in Northern Italy. More than 98% of Italy can _____ Verb _____ and _____ Verb _____. Popular sports in Italy include cycling, _____ Noun _____, soccer, and motor _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____. Italian main dishes include pork, _____ food _____, seafood, potatoes, rice, and _____ food _____ items. Other Italian foods include pizza, _____ food _____, gelato, _____ food _____, and mozzarella. Marmots and sheep are common animals in Italy. Lynx are _____ Adjective _____ in Italy. Because of a _____ Noun _____ in numbers, brown bears are now _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ in Italy.

Cuba: In the air, _____ country _____ looks like an alligator. The capital and biggest _____ Noun _____ in Cuba is Havana. _____ Number _____ million people live in Cuba. The main crops Cuba plants is _____ food _____ and tobacco. All _____ Noun _____ in Cuba is served at the same time. Dominoes is a very _____ Adjective _____ game in Cuba. People from Cuba often speak Spanish. Rio Cauto is the longest _____ Noun _____ in Cuba. 99.8% of Cuba can read . Cuba has a _____ Adjective _____ climate.

Australia: The capital of Australia is Canberra. Australians _____ verb _____ English. Australia is the only country in the continent of _____ country _____. An animal that lives in Australia is a wombat. They are herbivores with _____ Adjective _____ teeth. Two thirds of Australia is desert. Australia is _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ into six states. The six states are Southern _____ country _____, Western Australia, New South Wales, Queensland, Victoria, and Tasmania.

Like country, Australia has a Noun which get together to Verb the new president. The presidents are then there for a Number year term.