The Candy Bar

The Candy Bar

I rode my fast Nou	n Noun	_ to the corner store. (Once I got in the store I was looking for something sweet to eat. I f	ound aAdjective	candy bar that wa	as new. I had to buy it, but I did not a enough money. I wasAdjective	sad. I wanted	d it reallyAdjective	, but I could not afford it.
So I rode my Noun Noun	home and ask	ed my mom for more r	money. She said I would have to do more if I wanted the	e big bucks I was as	king for.
I mowed the long green	, picked up the	Adjective verb	dog poo, and stacked the heavy wood, all for the	amazing amount of	f $1, but I needed one _	Noun, so I told my mom that I needed 1 more	My mom made	me do more	, and I ended up cleaning the whole house! My mom is so	verb ! She work	s me like aAnimal	I finally bought the candy bar and I was so happy, but while I wa	as riding home I cras	shed and broke my can	dy bar and the neighborhood
Animal (plural) came over and a	te it all up. I was so	Adjective .

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.