Munchers

My creature is a lime Adjective monster with a Adjective complexion. He is the last of its kind, so of course it is a baby. Since he is a baby monster, it is only fair for my monster to have a Noun. On top of its head it has Number Noun - Plural where horns should be. They shouldn't grow, unless he turns Adjective. His name is Munchers. He has Adjective Part of Body, which allow him to Verb - Base Form since he is a baby. My baby monster smells of Noun baby lotion with a hint of awesomeness. He is usually very Adjective Coordinating conjunction Adjective, which is why he burns so much Noun. Because of this he always wants to Verb - Base Form.

When I took him to my school, it was ice cream day. He used his Adjective Noun to get all the ice cream cups to come to him. He Verb - Past Tense every single last morsel of ice cream. When Munchers was done, he cleaned his plate clean and every last bit that twas not visible to the untrained Noun. All of which led Munchers to believe he could create a Adjective sundae. So he got on top of the school and Verb - Past Tense Ice cream flavor cream all over the Noun. He then proceeded with the toppings: hot fudge, whipped cream, and Noun. But most importantly, a Noun on top.

Once Munchers was done with his Noun, he was amazed, and he couldn't wait to devour it. Just then, the bell for sixth period Verb - Past Tense and Munchers hurried into my Noun. The dean then noticed that the school was Adverb Adjective so he stepped outside and saw that there was Noun.

streaming down along with the whip topping. He decided to let the ice cream _____ down which meant it was a _____ wonderland.
