The three Adjective girls were the most Adjective girls in school. They were Adjective Verb - Past Participle about their sleepover this weekend. Proper Noun was the host of the sleepover.

Since her house was Adjective, it was the Adjective place to have the sleepover. Proper Noun and Proper Noun were twins, they were Adjective Adjective. The girls were supposed to Verb Particle at 7:00 P.M at Proper Noun house. "Interjection! I totally Verb - Past Tense my Noun I'll be there as soon as possible!" was the message Proper Noun received from Noun. It was 7:30 and Proper Noun and Proper Noun still haven't showed up yet. Proper Noun was Adverb Verb - Past Participle. She Verb - Past Tense her Adjective Noun from her Noun and called Proper Noun. Noun didn't Noun the Noun. Then she tried to call Proper Noun. Proper Noun didn't answer either! Proper Noun was getting very Adjective because she thought her friends were ditching her. About a half hour later Proper Noun called Proper Noun. "Interjection, I can't believe that I couldn't Verb my Noun ringing! I was TV and I fell asleep! Noun and I will be over in 10 minutes." Proper Noun told Proper Noun.
