Fellowship, test

Humiliation of soul always brings a positive with it. If we empty our hearts of self, God will fill them with his love. He who desires close communion with Christ should the word of the Lord, " To this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word." Stoop if you would climb to heaven. Do we not say of Jesus, "He descended that he ascend?" So must you.
You must grow downwards, that you may grow upwards; for the sweetest with heaven is to be had by souls, and by them alone. God will deny no blessing to a humbled spirit. "Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven," with all its riches and treasures. The whole exchequer of God shall be made over by deed of gift to the soul which is humble enough to be able to receive it without growing proud Preposition or subordinating conjunction of it. God blesses us all up to the full measure and extremity of what it is safe for him to do. If you do not get a blessing, it is because
