Last Supper

It was just before the Holiday Festival. Jesus knew that the Unit of Measure had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the Time.

The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted First Name of a Person, the son of Simon Iscariot, to Verb - Base Form Jesus. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a Noun around his waist. After that, he poured Noun into a basin and began to wash his disciples' Part of Body, drying them with the Noun that was wrapped around him.

He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my Part of Body?"

Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

"No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my Part of Body."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

"Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my Part of Body but my Part of Body and my head as well!"

Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is Adjective.

And you are Adjective, though not every one of you." For he knew who was going to Verb - Base Form him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

When he had finished washing their Part of Body, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am . Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. Very truly I tell you, no _____^{job}_____ is greater than his _____^{job}_____, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

"I am not referring to all of you; I know those I have chosen. But this is to fulfill this passage of Scripture: 'He who shared my bread has turned against me.' "I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am who I am. Very truly I tell you, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."
