Cool

_____Number_____ _____Noun_____, _____Determiner_____ _____Adjective_____ grade _____Noun_____ was _____Adverb_____ for his first period. When he walked in, he saw the boys and _____Adverb_____ staring at him. The teacher looked at him with such ferociousness that he threw up. Leaving the "muck" there, he sprinted across the room and towards the glistening exit. "Wait!" the teacher yelled. "He had no pants on..." The students laughed while the _____Verb - Present ends in S_____ ran after him.

One minute later, the boy came back in the class, this time fully clothed. "Hey," you have clothes on now!" yelled another student. Filled with rage, the boy grabbed the other kids backpack, and threw it in the trash with his pinky. Filled with anger, the student left the room, no backpack equipped. "Ugh!" yelled the teacher, "Why do all of my students randomly leave class?!"

~Many Periods Later~

The 5th period bell rang, so _____Noun - Plural_____ _____Adverb_____ _____Verb - Past Tense_____ _____to_____ _____Noun_____. The boy walked into his class with Mrs. Freed, but now he was on time. The class went extremely well compared to his first period. Later he was assigned to work on a "Mad Lib". The rest of the class he messed around and didn't accomplish anything.

Near the end of the period the boy excused him(self) to the restroom. While in the bathroom, he thought the toilet was a drinking fountain, so he began to drink it. He returned to class soaking wet, but no one questioned him, so he continued his day. Seventh period went well for the child, so he came home with a smile on his face. Suddenly, he had the urge to poop, so he sprinted outside and did it on the flowers. Later at night, he thought about his day, and realized that chicken nuggets are better than poop nuggets. The child went to sleep within a speedy snap. The name of the kid is unknown for know, but it is speculated _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____ it is _____Verb - Present Tense_____.
