George Washinton

After the Proper Noun War, many Americans admired George Washington and believed he was a Adjective man. Some suggested that he should become the Noun of the country, but George knew that wasn't a good idea. He told the people that he had no interest in Verb - Present ends in ING the nation . After years of Verb - Present ends in ING the Noun, George Washington became the Noun of the Proper Noun States. He served Adjective consectutive Noun, and later Verb - Past Tense two years after Verb - Present ends in ING Noun .
