Confusion in the Union

As soon as I clocked in yesterday, I knew it was going to be a _____Adjective_____ day! I _____Verb - Past Tense_____ into our office and there were people _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ around in every direction. Apparently, there was a major project deadline for that afternoon. I sat down and got started and then the fire alarm went off. I grabbed a _____Noun_____ and headed toward the hallway to assist guests in the building. Just as I stepped outside a caterer ran by carrying a tray of _____Noun - Plural_____. A building manager was standing in the hallway asking everyone to "Walk _____Adverb_____ to the exit."

As I started _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ down the stairs, I realized that I didn't have my _____Noun_____ and it was raining _____Animal (plural)_____ and _____Animal (plural)_____ outside. Just then, my co-workers _____Verb - Base Form_____ outside and they were all carrying boxes full of _____Noun - Plural_____. It was our project and it was getting soaked! When the firemen arrived, we found out it was a false alarm and headed back into the building.

When we walked back inside we found a stack of _____Noun - Plural_____ in the office. It was all a little bit confusing.
