Frozen

Anna, a _____ Adjective _____ Noun, sets off on an _____ Noun journey - teaming up with rugged mountain man _____ Proper Noun and his _____ Adjective reindeer Sven - to find her sister Elsa, whose _____ Adjective powers have trapped the kingdom of Arendelle in eternal winter. _____ Verb - Present Tense

Everest-like conditions, mystical _____ Noun - Plural and a _____ Adjective snowman named Olaf, Anna and Kristoff battle the elements in a race to save the kingdom. From the outside Anna's sister, Elsa looks _____ Verb - Past Participle, _____ Adjective and _____ Verb - Past Participle, but in reality, she lives in _____ Noun as she wrestles with a mighty _____ Noun was born with the power to create ice and snow. It's a _____ Adjective ability, but also extremely _____ Adjective. Haunted by the moment her magic nearly killed her younger sister Anna, Elsa has isolated herself, spending every waking minute trying to suppress her growing powers. Her mounting emotions trigger the _____ Noun, accidentally setting off an eternal winter that she can't stop. She fears she's becoming a _____ Noun and that no one, not even her sister, can help her.
