Jody's Birthday

Jody was born in Istanbul, Turkey on April 17, 1990. Meanwhile, her older brother and sisters were making chocolate Adjective cookies with their Noun - Plural at home. Perhaps this was a foretelling of Jody's penchant for Adjective Noun cooking baking in the future. When her siblings finally made it to the hospital, they had to wait outside. They passed the time by Verb - Present ends in ING traditional Turkish lamb sandwiches. One of Jody's sisters, who will remain nameless, was scared so much by a Noun that she Verb - Past Tense her sandwich to said cat in an act of appeasement.

Jody finally made it home, and was a delight to her Noun. However, she almost didn't make it to her first birthday because she was almost accidentally Verb - Past Tense while being bathed one day. Thankfully, she did survive and went on to learn to Verb - Base Form at a very young age.

Other momentous occasions in Jody's life include her Noun being shut down by the Noun, being Verb - Past Tense in Spain, and learning to Verb - Base Form in Mexico. We are glad Jody Verb - Past Tense her infancy and hope she lives many long happy years.
