Insurgent Mad Libs!!!

There once was a girl named           Proper Noun          . She was very           Adjective           from other people. One day when she had to take a           Noun           to decide on which group she would do best in. She got           Adjective           results. Later a war began, because the           Adjective           people wanted to           Verb           more.           Proper Noun           had to hide among           Adjective           groups and learn more about the           Adjective           group, that is when it all           Verb - Past Tense          .
