Dear First Name of a Person,

Everything is all right here. I Had a test yesterday, don't even ask if it went Adjective. It's been a Adjective couple days! My Animal as been sick, so I hope he feels better. Guess what? We are getting another pet soon! My mom loves pets, but I don't. It's getting a lot Noun here! It's been about Number degrees the last couple days! I can't wait until I can wear shorts on Day of the Week! My Noun told me it's cold where you live. Is it? Well, I can't talk for long, I have Event practice.

This pen pal assignment has been Adjective!

Your Noun,
