Cop cars go fast down the highway, maybe even eleven go down the highway. "Cop car 485 is going to the crime, we are on our way ma'm!" I yelled as we were going really fast. "Help, Help, he is coming closer, buzzzzz!" she screamed, "Hello, are you still there, she dropped the phone maybe the man or women got her."

My partner George look really sick," Are you feeling okay George you sick," he interrupted me and said "I'm okay Agent Morgan, I just hate driving at 130 miles per hour."

We got to the ladies house, we didn't find her at all in the house. "Hey Morgan I found the phone she used to call us, she never hung up the phone."

The next morning we found her in a park and she was knelling on a cross. We get back to the office and Emily says, "Maybe the guy did this because his relationship with God was bad and his parents didn't take him to church often."
